“One Nation under God...”

In the past few weeks, the church parsonage took on some new residents.

At first there was a lone robin who busily built her nest on the beam above the front door. Next she laid three beautiful blue eggs in that nest.

Both she and also a male robin fiercely guarded the nest-- so much so that we had to stop using that entrance, going through the garage instead. The female spent most of her time warming the eggs....

And then, the eggs hatched. We saw three heads poking up out of the nest with beaks wide open for some food.

Finally, yesterday, two of the little birds left the nest, already able to fly a few feet. They at first awkwardly headed toward the busy street, so we did our best to send them another direction. Then the third tried its wings and also succeeded in its first flight.

As far as we can observe, all three are still nearby and doing well. If we come close to any of the three now in the yard or side garden, the male robin loudly lets us know it is time to go elsewhere.

It all has been an amazing and beautiful thing to watch. I was reminded of a Psalm of David, Psalm 19:

“The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims His handiwork.”

Watching all this unfold has been like being given a beautiful sermon about the kind of Heavenly Father we have-- creator of heaven and earth-- the Father who guards and preserves us.

So the same psalm then points us to the Word of God for our guidance and salvation:

“The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple; the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes; the fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; the rules of the Lord are true; and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb. Moreover by them is your servant warned, in keeping them is great reward.”

An even greater beauty is regularly revealed to us as we gather for worship. There God’s Word made flesh has promised His presence-- where just two or three gather in His name. He is one with our Heavenly Father-- and in Him we see any question we may have about our Creator’s love and care for us wiped away.

It all might be just what we need to encourage us to try out our wings as the kind of children He has created and redeemed us to be.

“He will cover you with His wings; you will be safe in His care; His faithfulness will protect and defend you....” - Psalm 91 (Good News Bible)
